AN EASY WAY

To Keep Well. It is easy to keep well if we would only observe each day a few simple rules of health. The all important thing is to keep the stometh right and to do this it is not necessary to filet or to follow a set rule or bill of fare. Such pampering simply makes a capticlous appoint and a feeling that certain favorite articles of food must be avoided.

that farm buildings to by out grounds artistically and to make the house an inviting hour.

This is progress in the right direction. There will be no fear that these college girls will imore demessive his or be unfitted for the dulies of wife and mother. Politic agriculture" for girls will counterast over and ever any drawbacks that may come from agregation. This girl with the hoo will never be suggested for any length of these and the new Mand Mullers which some and daughters than demander which some and daughters form with favorable his so longer to be the center of intelligence which some and daughters form with favorable his for the college whose course of study educates girls and boys for a home life of varied and interesting activity. The farm may set be the ideal of every American young man sud wamen, and the nation will be the better for that ideal.

The South Texas National Bank aigns of advancement in more important ways.

The girls at Wellealey no longer limit their attention to the humanities and the so-called cuture studies. They are about to take up releatific terming, delrying, poultry raising, grafting and other matters pertaining to the farm.

The progressive State of Minnesota took the load in this direction. More than fifty girls have began the study of scientific farming at the Minneapelis College of Agriculture with the view of making farm work their lifework. This college has been in existence for the past decade, but only recently have girls been admitted. The fourse emphasizes became, chemistry, blyrsics, househald arts and donestic hygiene. Both boys and girls are taught to plan farm buildings to iay out growings artistically and to make the house an inviting them.
